Velazquez hired as Dance Coach for Homestead

MEQUON, Wis. – Homestead High School has hired Deana Velazquez as its Varsity Dance Coach. Velazquez takes over for Amanda Schmidt and Amanda Mueller.

Coach Velazquez is currently a Master Teacher at Accent on Dance Studio. Previously she was a member of the Milwaukee Bucks ENERGEE! Dance Team as well as, a dancer in Walt Disney World’s “The Lion King” show. In addition to these roles, Ms. Velazquez has held many dance teaching and instructing positions in the Milwaukee area.

Homestead High School Activities Director Ryan Mangan said of Velazquez, “Deana’s technical skills and diverse dance experience will benefit every dancer in our program. Most importantly, she has the positive attitude and character to serve as a mentor to our student athletes. I look forward to her becoming immediately engaged with our dancers, school, and community.”
