

Mequon – Thiensville Education Foundation

MTEF EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AWARDS ELIGIBILITY AND SELECTION CRITERIA

The Elementary School Excellence in Teaching Award is given to an Elementary School staff member who demonstrates exemplary conduct in the preparation of elementary school students for middle and high school.

The Middle School Excellence in Teaching Award is awarded to a member of the Middle School staff who demonstrates exemplary conduct in the preparation of students for high school.

The Homestead High School Excellence in Teaching Award is awarded to a member of the Homestead High School staff who demonstrates exemplary conduct in the preparation of students for post-secondary education.

Any student, parent or MTSD staff member may nominate an individual. A Mequon-Thiensville School District staff member may nominate himself/herself.

Award Description:

Each recipient of these awards will receive a check in the amount of $1,000 to be distributed in June of the current school year.

Eligibility (*Past winners length of ineligibility has changed):

- The nominee must be a current employee of the Mequon-Thiensville School District.
- The nominee must have been employed as a staff member of Mequon-Thiensville School District for at least one full school year.
- Any teacher receiving this award in the past 10 years is INELIGIBLE, (See previous Teacher Award Recipients at www.mtef.org). Ineligibility also applies to anyone retiring or leaving the district at the end of the current school year.

Selection Criteria:

Award selection criteria include, but are not limited to:

- the nominee's leadership and communication skills,
- the nominee's willingness to become involved and share his/her instructional expertise with students as well as colleagues,
- the nominee's positive impact on students, particularly in the promotion of academic excellence and goodness,
- the nominee's ability to incorporate new teaching methods, technology, and curriculum in the classroom as dictated by the 21st century,
- the nominee's commitment to mentoring students and/or colleagues,
- the nominee should be well respected and recognized by his/her peers as one who goes above and beyond the normal expectations of his/her position.

Selection Process:

Nominations are reviewed by the Teacher Awards Committee (TAC), a committee of the Mequon-Thiensville Education Foundation. Each nominee is then requested to complete an Award Application form and submit to the TAC. The TAC reviews the nomination forms and Award Application Forms, and recipients are selected. Awards will be announced in June of the current year.

Mequon – Thiensville
Education Foundation

MTEF EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AWARDS

2014 NOMINATION FORM -Part I

DUE DATE: FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 2014

Deadline

Nominations may be emailed to info@mtef.org by the above due date, or nominations may be mailed to the following address and must be postmarked by the above due date.

Mequon-Thiensville Education Foundation
P.O. Box 514,
Mequon, WI 53092.

Questions

Please contact Susan Malmquist, MTEF Executive Director at info@mtef.org

Submitter Information

Name: _____

Address: _____

City, State and Zip Code: _____

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

Nominee Information

Name: _____

Job Title: _____

School: _____

