MTSD Teachers and Students 2015 Herb Kohl Award Recipients

MEQUON, WI. —The Herb Kohl Educational Foundation has named Homestead senior Sarah McCarthy as a 2015 Excellence Scholar and Homestead Director of Orchestras John Emanuelson as a 2015 Fellowship Award winner. The $3,000 awards are being made to 102 teachers, their schools, and 162 graduating high school students.

Herb Kohl Educational Foundation Excellence Scholarship recipients have demonstrated excellence in the academic arena and high motivation to achieve, have displayed a broad range of activity and leadership outside the academic setting, and have shown strong promise for succeeding in college and beyond.

Fellowship recipients are chosen for their superior ability to inspire a love of learning in their students, their ability to motivate others, and their leadership and service within and outside the classroom.

Excellence Scholarship and Fellowship recipients are selected by a statewide committee composed of civic leaders, and representatives of education-related associations and the program's co-sponsors: The Wisconsin Newspaper Association Foundation, Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, Wisconsin Council of Religious and Independent Schools (WCRIS), and regional Cooperative Educational Service Agencies (CESA).

Ms. McCarthy and Mr. Emanuelson will be recognized during a luncheon at Menomonee Falls High School on April 11.

“On behalf of the Mequon-Thiensville School District, I would like to congratulate Ms. McCarthy and Mr. Emanuelson on their being selected for these outstanding honors,” said Superintendent of Schools Dr. Demond Means. “These awards are further indication of the great things that are taking place in our schools and in our community.”

In addition to granting the recipients of the Excellence Scholarship and Fellowship with $3,000, an additional $3,000 is granted to each Fellow's school.
